

Did you move to Denmark to work or study? Or are you maybe accompanying your spouse/partner?

Do you have any suggestions to the library's next projects or arrangements, so it could be interesting to you?

Would you like to have a (bigger) network?

Do you think you can get one through the library?

The public libraries in Denmark want to enlarge their services and activities to the expat group of highly educated immigrants, craftsman and au-pair women. To do so the libraries want to interview some of the expats to hear what kind of expectations and problems this new group encounters in Denmark and how the libraries can help. This will happen mainly in March, 2011, at the secretariat of Aarhus Municipality's branch libraries (at Åby Bibliotek) – other locations are also possible after agreement.
